

Chicago Artists Month October 2008

October 10 Artistic Jeanius
1711 S. Halsted Street
312.912.1444
www.artisticjeanuis.com

Abstract and Different
October 6–November 13, 1–9pm
This exhibit features urban contemporary artwork of Chicago artists including Immy Mulle.

Opening: October 10, 6–10pm

October 10 Under the Wire
2210 S. Halsted Street
312.733.9350
www.underthewire.biz

re:edit, October 9–November 8
This solo exhibition of mixed media works by Kim Alpert explores ideas of how media, technology, sexuality, gender, and identity affect and nurture both personal and societal growth.

Opening: October 10, 6–10pm; Exhibition Preview and Artist Talk: October 9, 6–9pm

October 10 Chicago Art Department
1837 S. Halsted Street
312.226.8601
www.chicagoartdepartment.org

Night of the Living Artist, October 10, 6–10pm
In this group show, participating artists turn their favorite artist into zombies. Artists include: Kerry Flaherty and more.

DON'T MISS!

Point of Views, October 10 & 11, 10–11pm

The Flat Iron Artists Association presents a multimedia window-slideshow-projection responding to Gandhi's new Seven Deadly Sins: politics without principle, wealth without work, commerce without morality, pleasure without conscience, education without character, science without humanity and worship without sacrifice. These paintings, drawings, photographs, sculpture, dolls, puppets and live performances, are to be viewed from the street looking up. Artists include: Zsófia Ötvös, Lidoska Guietti, Alex Magana, Jo Jo Baby, Adam Siegel, and Reed Kirst. Come early to meet the Flat Iron artists and visit their open studios from 6–10 pm on October 10 and 11.

Zsófia Ötvös

Flat Iron Building
1579 N. Milwaukee Avenue
773.469.7201
www.theflatironproject.com

October 10 Little Black Pearl Art and Design Center
1060 E. 47th Street
773.285.1211
www.phantomgallerychicago.net

Rant-a-Thon, October 10, 8pm–1am
This first-ever event is a read-a-thon, speak-a-thon, progressive poetry reading, and art exhibit. Artists include: Caryl Henry-Alexander, Sherman Beck, Ray Noland, Nathaniel Mcln, Celestine "Wombykind," and Tamasha Williamson. Presented by Phantom Gallery Chicago Network.

Admission: $5 suggested donation

October 10 Sip Coffee House & Garden
1223 W. Grand Avenue
312.563.1123
www.esperanzacommunity.org

What Are We Thinking?, October 10–30
In this curious exhibition of paintings, drawings and prints, artists with developmental disabilities explore the subjects and issues that matter most to them, from Mickey Mouse to gun violence to saving the earth with physics. Artists include: Bobby Tirelli, Johnny Rodriguez, Jaime Ortega, Lorena Rocha, Clarence Simmons, and Veronica Sanchez. Presented by Esperanza Community Services.

Zsófia Ötvös

Art: Painting

Issues of concern: Contemporary life, personal choices

Featured in: Point of Views at the Flat Iron Building, page 34

"What I am most preoccupied with right now are people of today. I feel there is an urgent need for me to document the world as I see it, because the change is so rapid. When I travel to Hungary, I feel I need to paint the elderly, and when I'm back in Bucktown I am fascinated by young people."

